

Having 19 years experience as a flight attendant I know how very little attention is given during the safety demo on flights. Can you image what would happen in case of an emergency and we had to prepare the cabin for an evacuation? Everyone would be calling their loved ones. Please do not let this happen.